

Labor in put and out put, in this area all inputs and outputs of the laboratory orders will registered , checked and with the customer throughout the manufacturing phase communicates, disinfection and packing work done.